

Checklist: What do I need to take with me to the Office?

You must have the following with you when you apply for a driver's license/permit.

NEW MISSOURI DRIVER'S LICENSE/PERMIT

- 9 Two forms of proof of identity
(The most common forms of proof of identity are birth certificate and a social security card.)
Take the above documents with you to a Missouri State Highway Patrol (MSHP) examination location when you take the written, vision and road sign test, and/or driving test.
- 9 One form of proof of social security number (SSN)
(The most common form of proof of SSN is a social security card.)
- 9 Test paper indicating successful completion of tests
Take all the above documents with you to a Department of Revenue driver's license office when you apply for your driver's license/permit.

NEW MISSOURI RESIDENT

- 9 Two forms of proof of identity
(The most common forms of identity for a new Missouri resident are a out-of-state driver's license and a social security card.)
Take the above document with you to a Missouri State Highway Patrol (MSHP) examination location when you take the written, vision and road sign test, and/or driving test.
- 9 One form of proof of SNN
(The most common form of proof of SSN is a social security card.)
- 9 Test papers indicating successful completion of test
Take all the above documents with you to a Department of Revenue driver's license office when you apply for your driver's license/permit.

RENEWAL/DUPLICATE

- 9 Missouri driver's license/permit or two forms of proof of identity
- 9 Renewal card (optional)
(Take the above document with you to a Department of Revenue driver's license office when you apply for your driver's license/permit.)

Note: additional proof of identity and proof of SSN may be required if the documentation submitted is questionable, or if the license office clerk or MSHP examiner has a need for further verification. For a complete list of acceptable documents refer to Chapter 1 in the driver's guide.